Duties: Supervise, train and evaluate young adults (corpsmembers) between the ages of 18 and 25 performing conservation-related work projects. Instruct, inspire, motivate and ensure the development of safe work habits in crews of young adult corpsmembers. Supervise corpsmembers while involved in projects in remote areas or urban settings. Respond to natural disasters such as floods, fires or pest infestations. Assist the further educational development of corpsmembers during evening and weekends, if assigned. Maintain time and leave records; develop injury, accomplishment and disciplinary reports.

Desirable Qualifications: Desire to make a significant, positive difference in the youth and environment of the state; a strong sense of the values of integrity, honor, loyalty and professionalism. Exhibit strength in character; respect the chain of command; possess unquestionable ethics; perform physically demanding work; demand excellence from others; and lead by example.

Who May Apply: Applicants currently at the Conservationist I level, or those who have eligibility for appointment or transfer to this classification.

The young women and men of the Corps work hard protecting and restoring California's environment and responding to disasters, becoming stronger workers, citizens and individuals through their service.
